

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

The What, Why, and How of DVAM

What is DVAM?

Domestic Violence Awareness Month is held during October to bring people across the nation together to end domestic violence.

Why DVAM?

Domestic Violence Awareness Month is the chance for anyone and everyone— victims, survivors, advocates, supporters and more— to unite in our work to end domestic violence.

How to Get Involved?

There are many ways to get involved in Domestic Violence Awareness Month. At the Center for Women and Families, we encourage everyone to become an #everydayadvocate, pledge to believe survivors of domestic and sexual violence, and help create a culture where violence is not tolerated.
